

The Gallery @ Mayyim Hayyim is a partnership between Mayyim Hayyim Living Waters Community Mikveh and Paula Brody & Family Education Center (Mayyim Hayyim) and the Jewish Arts Collaborative (JArts).

The Gallery is located in a renovated Victorian home in spacious living and dining areas, which also function as a classroom and meeting space. Some work is also shown in the adjacent reception area. Wall spaces range in size from 43" (w) by 46" (h) to 113" (w) by 77" (h) and there are some height restrictions. A floor plan is available upon request and prospective artists are welcome to visit.

We are now accepting submissions online at: <https://www.mayyimhayyim.org/gallery/submissions>

Exhibits

- Exhibits are chosen by a committee of artists and collectors affiliated with Mayyim Hayyim and JArts.
- Exhibits typically feature two (2) artists.
- Two (2) members of the committee curate each show.

Installation and De-installation

- Mayyim Hayyim provides a professional installer to install the work.
- Curators and artists will be present on those dates to work with the installer.
- Generally artists de-install their own work.

Opening Reception and Artist's Talk

- An opening reception is planned for each exhibit.
- The artists attend and invite guests to the Opening Reception and there present a brief, informal talk on the work: inspiration, medium, etc.
- Mayyim Hayyim and JArts provide marketing, refreshments, and set-up for the event.
- Mayyim Hayyim will handle registration for the event and the artists will do their best to direct their guests to RSVP via Mayyim Hayyim's website.

Additional Programs and Events

- The artists may present a workshop and/or gallery talk during the duration of the exhibit, on a topic and date to be mutually agreed upon.

Sale of Artwork

- Art on display will be for sale.
- Typically, fifty percent of sales will be donated to Mayyim Hayyim.
- Mayyim Hayyim's professional staff will handle purchase payments and disburse payment to the artists after the exhibit closes.

Rachel Eisen, Mayyim Hayyim Director of Development, is the staff contact for the Gallery @ Mayyim Hayyim: 617-244-1836 x211 or gallery@mayyimhayyim.org.